Theater by Women For Everyone

Dear Renaissance Theaterworks family,

It is with heavy hearts and out of concern for the health and safety of our patrons, artists, volunteers and staff, and in accordance with the recommendations of the Wisconsin Department of Health Services, Renaissance Theaterworks will cancel all public performances of our upcoming production ACTUALLY, scheduled to run March 27th- April 19th.

We are currently working on an alternative way to share this special production with you, please stay tuned. We ask for your patience as we work out the details and determine what we will be able to offer you. Our intent is to find a digital recording solution so that ticket holders can experience this beautiful show from the comfort of home.

Please keep updated via our website and our social media pages for the latest updates, or contact the Broadway Theatre Center Box office at 414-291-7800.

As Milwaukee's only non-profit theater dedicated to gender-equity, the economic impact of these lost performances hurts us. But your generosity can heal us. We are committed to paying all of the ACTUALLY artists and crew in full. We respectfully ask ticketholders to consider the face value of your tickets as a donation to help sail us through these rough waters.

We hope that our actions will help nationwide efforts to contain the spread of the COVID-19 virus.

Cancelling is a heartbreaking decision for us. The superb artistry brought to this vital production by the ACTUALLY creative team of actors, designers, director and crew is awe-inspiring. We are so proud of this show.

You —our community of theater-goers and makers and supporters— are our most precious resource. We urge you to take the precautionary measures necessary to ensure your health and safety. We need each other. So take care of yourselves and each other. Important work lies ahead.

Warmly.

Suzan Fete, Artistic Director
